

Diamond Wailea Resort & Spa adds new complimentary guest amenities

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 9, 2009

WAILEA, Maui, Hawaii – Diamond Wailea Resort & Spa announced the addition of two new amenities for guests' enjoyment when vacationing at the all-suite resort.

- Effective April 1 through September 30, 2009, complimentary daily continental breakfast is available to all resort guests. Breakfast is served in Taiko restaurant from 7- 10 am and includes: three (3) types of cereal, bagels, toast, fruits, coffee, tea & juice.
- Already underway is the weekly manager's reception. This activity is held every Tuesday from 4 – 5 pm on the pool deck with managers' serving guests "The Humpback" – a refreshing rum-based cocktail named after the Humpback Whales that are often seen breaching in the waters off Wailea from December to May.

"The complimentary breakfast is a guest amenity that is unmatched in Wailea!" said Henry Perez, interim general manager. "And, the reception is a great opportunity for guests to meet and mingle with other guests and staff in a casual, social environment."

These amenities are in addition to the resort's array of services including the ocean view Diamond Spa with its Hydro Therapy System with large whirlpool, dry sauna, and pressure body shower; Business Center which doubles as a library and offers useful books and desks with internet access; shuttle service within the resort and private beach cabana with attendant and refreshments.

Currently, Diamond Wailea Resort & Spa is offering an introductory special of $199 plus taxes per night, which includes the daily resort fee, for garden view suites booked for stays during April and May. The introductory special represents a savings of $190 per night. Other specials are available, including great rates for longer stays.
